Promises of Jesus when we are anxious

Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? Matthew 6:26

Lord Jesus, thank you for this reminder written into creation itself – that God who feeds the birds never forgets His children. When worry crowds my mind, please lift up my eyes to the simple, steady signs of Your care around me.

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.
Matthew 11:28

Dear Jesus, I come to You with any weight I've been carrying – some of it visible, much of it hidden. Thank You for inviting me to lay it all down. Teach me to rest in You and not in my own strength. Please bear my burdens for me and help me form a habit of prayerfully handing them to You.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you ... Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.
John 14:27

Prince of Peace, Your peace is a gift I cannot manufacture on my own. Thank You for offering it freely, even when my heart feels troubled. When I am afraid, help me to remember Your words – You are my peace. You are mightier than anything else going on in my life and You hold every moment.

In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.
John 16:33

Lord Jesus, You never promised a trouble-free life, but You did promise Yourself – and that is enough. When anxiety rises and the world feels uncertain, remind me that You have already overcome every power that threatens my peace. Strengthen my heart with courage rooted in Your eternal victory. Help me to walk forward with confidence in Your unshakable love.

In Your name, Amen.

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK: 10th - 16th MAY

There will be envelopes available in the pews for donations. Lorna will also be looking for willing volunteers to help with delivering envelopes house to house. The format will be the same as last year with the envelopes being put through letter boxes and collection points listed on them for people to take them to or place them in the church collection plate.

CHRISTIAN AID LUNCH

After church on Sunday 10th May in church hall
