Memory Verses

Lamentations 3:22-24

Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.
I say to myself, "The Lord is my portion; therefore I will wait for him."

Give thanks for:

- God's unfailing compassion and faithfulness every morning.
- The easing of Covid restrictions and a reduction in deaths and serious illness due to the virus.
- If you have been conscious of God's help to you in your own life – thank Him for His blessings.
- Sunday services, the mid-week and all the organisations.

Pray for:

- The presence of God with us in our daily lives. There is never a shadow, but He is there. In every valley experience of life He is there – our Lord and Shepherd, the Mighty God.
- The children and young people in the Sunday school, C.E, Mothers & Toddlers and Youth Fellowship. The leaders and helpers as they prepare, teach and nurture young minds to trust God.
- The Pre-communion classes that are taking place for those considering full church membership in Raloo and Magheramorne.
- All 19 regional presbyteries who will meet on Tuesday 1st February to select the next Moderator of the General Assembly for the year 2022-2023.
- Business owners who are planning for a more normal trading pattern in the weeks ahead. Give them confidence, strength, patience and wisdom as they seek to provide employment and social interaction for many.
- Those who are anxious about the recent announcement of huge utility bills in the months ahead. Help them to seek advice and support and not give up.
- The volatile situation in Ukraine. Pray that Russia's invasion can be stopped and all in authority will use their power to influence Vladimir Putin. Pray for peace in Ukraine.
- All in Government in Westminster and in Stormont. Pray that issues relating to the Downing street parties and the N.I. Protocol will be resolved soon.
