Points for Prayer

The Lord our God is near us whenever we pray to him. Deuteronomy 4:7

Give thanks for:

- Signs of new life in the gardens and fields and the lengthening of days.
- In times of uncertainty we can take comfort that God is sovereign - he is in control.
- When life's circumstances overwhelm us, God gives us the strength to overcome.
- The guidance and support from Rev Dr Cecil Grant and the Carrickfergus Presbytery.
- For what health you have and all those who complete medical research to find new ways to fight the various illnesses.

Pray for:

- All those who have been affected by the severe flooding in England, Wales & Scotland. Large parts of the country are submerged under water with the loss of lives, crops and homes.
- All the emergency services who have been working tirelessly in recent weeks to support their local community.
- Our farmers as they care for the animals. As the lambing season commences and the pressure on housing becomes a concern due to fields being saturated with water. Also as the slurry season has started may the farmers take no risks and exercise safety at all times.
- All our church services in March. The visiting ministers, Phyllis and the choir. Pray that the Spirit of God might lead and teach.
- The ladies in the P.W. as they support mission at home and abroad and as they plan for a table quiz this month.
- The new Moderator-Designate, Rev. David Bruce
- The current Moderator Rev. William Henry, as he completes the last few months and prepares to hand over in June.
- The young people who are taking exams and deciding on further education or employment. Pray they will seek God's guidance in these important decisions.
- The leaders and children in the C.E. as they take part in area competitions towards the end of March.
- The Youth Fellowship weekend due to take place on the 17th-19th April at the Exodus centre in Coleraine. Pray for God's wisdom as final preparations are being made.
- Those who are unwell at home or in hospital and require treatment. Pray that they may not despair nor become downhearted.
- Our Congregation, Session and Committee.
