For Meditation

“He went out carrying His cross and came to a place called Golgotha”

John 19:17

“He died,” said the Cross: “when my very name
Was a hated thing and a word of shame;
But since Christ hung with arms outspread,
With nails in his hands and thorns on his head,
With bleeding wounds and a riven side,
Doubt the measureless love of the crucified”

“He rose,” said the Tomb, “I was dark and drear
And the sound of my name was a spell of fear;
But the Lord of life in my depths has lain,
To break death's power and rend its chain;
And a light streams forth from the open door,
For the Lord is risen: He dies no more.”

1 Peter 3:18

Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive in the Spirit.

JESUS, OUR SUBSTITUTE

A wealthy twenty year old was drag- racing with his friends when he struck and killed a pedestrian. Although the young man received a three- year prison sentence, some believe that the man who appeared in court (and who subsequently served a prison sentence) was a hired surrogate for the driver who committed the crime. This type of thing has been known to occur in some countries where people hire body doubles to avoid paying for their crimes.

This may sound scandalous and outrageous, but more than two thousand years ago, Jesus became our substitute and “suffered once for our sins, the righteous for the unrighteous” (1 Peter 3:18)

As God’s sinless sacrifice, Christ suffered and died once and for all (Hebrews 10:10), for all who believe in Him. He took the penalty for all our sins in His own body on the cross. Unlike a person today who chooses to be a substitute for a criminal to get some cash, Christ’s substitutionary death on the cross provided “hope” for us as He freely, willingly gave His life for us (1 Peter 3:15,18; John 10:15) He did so to bridge the chasm between us and God.

May we rejoice and find comfort and confidence in this profound truth: only by the substitutionary death of Jesus can we- sinners in need- have a relationship with and complete spiritual access to our loving God.

How has Christ’s substitutionary death changed your life?

What does it mean for you to have access to God and eternal life because of His death on the cross?
