For Meditation

Be still, and know that I am God,
Where you now tread, I too have trod-
I know your griefs – I have a part,
I know the anguish of your heart.

Did I not walk the toilsome road,
A wanderer without abode?
Did I not stand in Pilate's hall?
Though innocent, hear judgement fall?

Did I not hang in yonder tree
At Golgotha, to die for thee?
Did I not break the bars away,
On that first Resurrection Day?

Calvary, the place of eternal hope or the seal of eternal hopelessness.

Give thanks for:

- The promise of spring and for all the works and wonders of the Creator God and our Heavenly Father, in nature, providence and grace.
- The faithful preaching of God's word each Sunday and continued presence of God in our Sunday Services, Sunday school, C.E & Midweek.
- The Easter message that God reigns and has raised the Lord Jesus from the dead to give to every believer the assurance of life beyond the grave.

- The friendship, fellowship and financial support within the congregation to each other and the various appeals.
- The blessings and circumstances in your life. Make time to pray about the things and people you're thinking about; and spend a little time quietly listening for Him to speak.

Pray for:

- The Ukrainian people as Russia continues its attack despite its pledge to reduce military activity there.
- All members of the Ukrainian army who have defended their country and the many volunteers who stayed behind to help even with little experience and training.
- Those displaced and separated from their homes and loved ones.
- All the relief agencies who are helping in a practical way to provide essential items and those who have signed up to adopt people in their own homes until Ukraine is safe to return to.
- The Northern Ireland Assembly elections as preparations are well underway for the 5th May. Pray for those who are seeking to secure votes and represent the people. Pray the candidates will demonstrate integrity as they set out their manifestos.
- Those in our church and local area who have been affected by the P&O announcement. May they secure employment soon.
- The effect huge utility bills and the food costs will have on all families this year. Also the farmers as they enter their busy season and animal food and crop fertiliser costs escalate.
- Our minister, kirk session, committee, organist and all leaders within the church.
- Queen Elizabeth II as she prepares for the Platinum celebrations in June. May her mobility and health allow her to continue her duties as she remains the longest serving Monarch in British history.
- Our Easter services that God will give us a time of renewal and blessing as we turn again to Calvary and the victory of the risen Christ who lives to be our Saviour and deliverer.
- The assurance of the forgiveness of sins through the atoning death of Christ on the Cross of Calvary.
