Rest Assured In God

Researchers in Fujian, China, wanted to help intensive care unit patients sleep more soundly. They measured the effects of sleep aids on test subjects in a simulated ICU environment, complete with bright, hospital-grade lighting and audio recordings of machines beeping and nurses talking. Their research showed that tools like sleep masks and ear plugs improved their subjects' rest. But they acknowledged that for truly sick patients in a real ICU, peaceful sleep would be hard to come by.

When our world is troubled, how can we find rest? The Bible's clear: there's peace for those who trust in God, regardless of their circumstances. The prophet Isaiah wrote about a future time when the ancient Israelites would be restored after hardship. They would live securely in their city, because they knew that God made it safe (Isaiah 26:1). They would trust that He was actively working in the world around them to bring good—"He humbles those who dwell on high," raising up the oppressed, and bringing justice (vv.5-6) They would know that "the Lord himself, is the Rock eternal," and they could trust Him forever (v.4)

"You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast," wrote Isaiah, "because they trust in you" (v.3) God can provide peace and rest for us today as well. We can rest in the assurance of His love and power, no matter what's going on around us.

THE WAY AHEAD

I cannot see the way ahead
But this, I know, is true;
All that lies ahead of me
Is fully known by You.

2/

For You are sovereign over all
In both the joy and pain.
With every step, I trust your plan
For faithful You remain

3/

I cannot see the way ahead
But I know You'll walk beside.
Through every season, You remain
A constant friend and guide.

4/

For You are God and You are good
And when I do not understand,
I'll lift my eyes, though dark the night
And trust your loving hand.

5/

I cannot see the way ahead
But your light will guide my way.
In times of joy and sorrow too
Beside me You will stay.

6/

And even when the shadows fall
And I find it hard to see;
My joy and hope are found in You.
You're holding on to me!

7/

I cannot see the way ahead
But You can
And in that,
I rejoice.
