WHEN YOU WORSHIP ME in spirit and truth, you join with choirs of angels who are continually before My throne. Though you cannot hear their voices, your praise and thanksgiving are distinctly audible in heaven. Your petitions are also heard, but it is your gratitude that clears the way to My Heart. With the way between us wide open, My blessings fall upon you in rich abundance. The greatest blessing is nearness to Me – abundant Joy and Peace in My Presence. Practice praising and thanking Me continually throughout this day.

Psalm 100: 4. John 4: 23-24.

By Sarah Young – Jesus Calling

Points for Prayer

Give thanks for:

- The gift of the scriptures, help us to read it, savour it and digest it, that we might serve God faithfully.
- The joy of worshipping together in church and the opportunity to see our church family and friends and have a brief chat.
- The recommencement of Sunday school, the children as they listen and teachers as they present the Bible stories.
- The Rev Dr Michael Barry and his wife Esther as they become involved in the life and work of the congregation. May they feel very much at home in Magheramorne & Raloo in the months ahead.
- The scientists who continue their research to fight the various viruses and illnesses that threaten our bodies.
- Lorna Swann as she organised the Christian Aid Week distribution of material and all those who donated to help families survive the drought.

Pray for:

- That God's Word will be a beacon of light in these dark times. As many are breaking under the continued strain of the Coronavirus may they draw hope and reassurance from the Bible.
- That the continued administration of the vaccines would prove effective in protecting people from the virus, and let freedom return within households, workplaces and communities.
- That restrictions will be lifted gradually in the coming months allowing all our church based organisations to recommence with confidence and wisdom.
- Our missionaries within our Presbyterian church as they continue to share God's word throughout the world during this time of uncertainty and change.
- Those who are unwell at home or in hospital and require treatment. Pray they may not despair nor become downhearted but trust in the Lord to renew their strength.
- Our session and committee as they meet to discuss spiritual and practical matters in the months ahead.
- For the summer outreach activities, the Holiday Bible club and Soccer school
- The Northern Ireland Assembly and Executive as two new leaders are appointed. Give them wisdom, knowledge, strength and integrity in the decisions they will take on critical issues that will affect us all.
