For meditation

“No one who puts his hand to the plough and looks back is fit for service in the Kingdom of God” Luke 9:63

Wanted – Committed men and women.

What is my commitment to the Kingdom of God in Magheramorne congregation...

...In attendance,

...prayer,

...giving,

...and service?

How does it compare with Christ's commitment to me?

Points for Prayer

Give thanks for:

- A faithful and loving God as he leads and guides us daily
- For each new day and God's sparing mercy.
- For His presence in services throughout September.
- The start of a new season for all the organisations as they get back into routine and a full programme.
- Our inheritance in the Church at Magheramorne. A beautiful building in which to worship and the faith handed down to us by Godly ministers, Sunday school teachers and God-fearing men & women.

Pray for:

- The Midweek and prayer meetings. The first night had good attendance but there is still room for more. Pray that those who have never been to midweek would be encouraged to attend.
- The harvest services in Raloo & Magheramorne – that we might be filled with true thanks, joy and rededication.
- King Charles III as he embraces a new chapter in his life as the new monarch of Great Britain and the Commonwealth. Ask that God would give him, the Queen Consort and all working Royals the wisdom, integrity, strength and knowledge to complete their daily responsibilities.
- The new Prime Minister Liz Truss. As leader of the UK government she is ultimately responsible for the policy and decisions of the government. Pray that together with the new Cabinet they will set out an agenda that is transparent and supports all the people.
- Our own N.I. Executive. Pray that all parties would unite and begin to make decisions on critical issues.
- Those who are ill, elderly, worried or grieving. Pray that the Lord's peace might fill their minds and that they would leave their burdens with God.
- The Carrickfergus Presbytery and the Linkage Commission as Raloo & Magheramorne prepare to meet with them and seek leave to call a new minister.
- Our farmers who provide high quality food despite the many challenges they face.
