Memory Verse

“Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest, and repent. Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him, and he with me. To him who overcomes, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne. Revelation 3: 19-21”

Points for Prayer

Give thanks for:

- Jesus Christ, the Sower of the good seed and the Lord of the Harvest.
- For joyful harvest services and for the spirit of fellowship.
- For spiritual blessings: the Word of God, the privilege of prayer, the Church and freedom to worship and above all, for the Lord Jesus, Saviour and Friend, the gift of God's love.
- The support of the congregation to the Foodbank and the shoebox appeal. Many families who have so little and are anxious about the days ahead will benefit from all the items donated.
- Wilbert McNeilly who has retired as our church treasurer after 33 years of dedicated service.

Pray for:

- Communion Sunday and all our services in November.
- All in the Armed and Security services at home and abroad. Those for whom Remembrance Sunday is painful and sad.
- All our politicians:
- Westminster – The new Prime Minister Richi Sunak as he completes a Cabinet reshuffle and sets out a new mandate for future months promising economic stability and confidence.
- For Stormont – The lack of a functioning Assembly is having a profoundly detrimental effect across all sectors of life in Northern Ireland. Pray that a compromise can be found to aid progress in economic and health issues.
- The NHS as they prepare for a busy winter period and threatening walk out strikes in demand for a higher pay rise.
- Those who are anxious about their health and the long waiting lists for treatment.
- Those who have lost a loved one and feel lonely going into the shorter days and long dark nights.
- Families who are experiencing financial hardship and are worried about the months ahead and soaring costs.
- Ukraine and Palestine as terrorism and sectarian violence continues resulting in a huge numbers of lives lost.
- For all the Young people and children's ministry teams and its leaders.
- Raloo and Magheramorne church have received sign off from Presbytery to go to Linkage Commission regarding the calling of a new minister. Details on final presentations are being completed in the next few weeks.
